If either Party commences with any of the insolvency circumstances noted directly above, then the other Party may immediately terminate the Agreement, including any work in progress, upon written notice to such other Party, unless the other Party, within fifteen (15) days of such notice gives adequate assurances of the future performance of the Agreement.

If either Party fails to perform its obligations under the Agreement, written notification will be provided to the defaulting Party. If this failure continues for thirty (30) days after written notification is received, the non-defaulting Party may terminate the Contract immediately upon written notice.
